

Day in the Country

Partie de campagne

Drama comedy - 1936 - Black & White

Director : Jean RENOIR

40 minutes

Production : Les Films du Panthéon

Distribution : Les Films du Jeudi

visa # 3 953

Based upon Maupassant's short story.

Extras : Pierre Lestringuéz, Jacques Becker, Luchino Visconti.

With :

Sylvia BATAILLE, J.B BRUNIUS, Jeanne MARKEN, Georges SAINT-SAENS, GABRIELLO, Paul TEMPS, Jean RENOIR, Jacques BOREL, Georges D'ARNOUX

Sélection au Festival de Cannes (1946)

Restored by Les Films du Jeudi et La Cinémathèque française with the support of the CNC and the contribution of the Franco American Cultural Found DGA – MPA – SACEM – WGAW

SUMMARY

One Sunday, Mr. Dufour, the hardware dealer, his mother, his wife, his daughter Henriette and his assistant, Anatole, go picnicking in the country. The men go fishing, and two young people charm Henriette and her mother and take them out boating. There is a sudden clap of thunder; they must rush back home. A few years later, Henriette, now married to Anatole, returns to the country, where she meets her first love.