SUMMARY

Based in Paris for the past few months, young Sophie makes her debut in journalism. Her life is suddenly shaken by the murder of one of her neighbors. Frank, the victim's husband, disappeared after the crime and is this chief suspect. One night, Frank breaks into the young woman's apartment, claiming his innocence. Attracted to him, Sophie is convinced and determined to prove he didn't do it. She thinks she knows who the killer is and sets out to find Tony, Frank's brother-in-law, whom Frank has described as a dangerous individual. Caught up in her investigation, she ignores the advice of Sapi, a journalist friend, and gets in the police's way. But she only proves that the suspect was indeed the murderer when Frank tries to strangle her. Sapi comes to her rescue. She realizes he is in love with her and reciprocates.
